

Little Hands Family Services present:

Ethics for Counselors and Social Workers

Kimberly Woeller MA, NCC, LPC

Thursday November 21, 2019, Little Hands Family Services Office C1,
Turnersville NJ, 08012, Five CEU's, $75 per person, lunch - not included

Description: The goal of this course is to provide up to date ethical training for Counselors and Social workers in Clinical Practice

Workshop Objectives:

1. Understand the foundations of our ethical principals and where to locate the standards of practice clinicians are held to in the state of New Jersey.
2. Develop an understanding of the counseling relationship between client and therapist and the rules and boundaries that exist to protect each.
3. Differentiate between privacy, confidentiality, and privilege
4. How to develop professional boundaries using a culturally sensitive perspective
5. Review common ethical dilemmas in therapeutic work associated with working with children and families

Agenda:

9:00am – 9:30am: Registration

9:30am – 10:30am: Introductions and a review of where to find state regulations as well as current codes of ethics.

10:30am-10:45am Break

10:45am – 12:00pm: Development of the Counseling relationship

12:00 to 1:00: Lunch - On your own

1:00 to 2:15: Review of Confidentiality, Privileged Communication, and Privacy

2:15 to 2:30: Break

2:30 to 4:00 : Professional Responsibility as it relates to working with Children and families

Cost, When and Where: $75 for 5 Continuing Education. Thursday November 21, 2019.

900 Route 168, Suite C-1, 9:00am – 4:00pm. For more information, call 856-228-1005

CEU's: Little Hands Family Services is a NBCC approved provider #6435

About the Speaker: Kimberly Woeller, MA, NCC, LPC is a licensed clinician with Little Hands Family Services and adjunct professor with Rowan College of South Jersey. She is a graduate of Rowan University Counseling in Education program with an advance degree in Mental Health Counseling. Her clinical work is predominately focused on helping youth and adolescents with ADHD, Autism, Anxiety, Oppositional Behaviors and Trauma develop skills to process their thoughts and feeling so that they may develop strategies that helps solves everyday problems.

Registration: Registration will be through <https://lpcce.com/> or call 856-228-1005

Cancellations and Refunds: Canceling your registration must be done by email info@littlehandsagency.com prior to five business days from the training date. If you have paid the fee, you will receive a refund or credit (your choice). If you fail to cancel prior to five business days and have paid, you or your agency will forfeit the fee. If you fail to cancel prior to five business days from the training date and have not paid, you or your agency will be billed for the full fee.